

Oil Creek Backpacking Trip

Personal Equipment

Full Uniform – to wear down and back (Do not wear any part of your uniform on the trail - leave in the vehicles)

Change of Clothes – to wear hiking the trail

Pack with frame and hip belt

Sleeping bag in water proof stuff sack, attached to pack

Change of clothes – for the Sunday hike out

Hiking boots

2 pair of extra socks

Tennis shoes – to wear once you get to the campsite

Poncho or rain gear (No flimsy, disposable ponchos!)

Pocket knife

Jacket or sweatshirt

Waterproof case with matches or Striker

Partial roll of toilet paper

Compass

Plastic bags – different sizes to put your clothes in to keep them dry

Small flashlight with fresh batteries

Plate, cup, silverware

Water bottle or two – filled before you leave

Soap, toothbrush, toothpaste, small towel and washcloth

Foot powder, Band-Aids, moleskin

Insect repellent

Remember:

- Mark all of your gear with your name
- Keep it as light as possible
- Keep half your pack space open for carrying crew gear
- All of your gear should be packed in individual plastic bags
- Turn in all medication at the start of the trip

Crew Equipment

Trail tents – to supplement Adirondack space

1 Trail fly

1 Whisperlite stove
2 Pocket Rocket
*(1 compressed fuel)
*(1 fuel bottle)
1 UV Light Purifier
*(Spare Batteries)
1 Gravity water filter
1 2.5-gal collapsible water jug
1 Large collapsible pot
1 Medium collapsible pot
1 plastic mixing bowl, 2 measuring Cups
1 Teflon fry pan
2 large spoons, 1 plastic spatula

2 water buckets

2- 5 liter wash basin

1 small bottle soap

*(2 small Scotchbrites (2" x 2"))

1 large dry bag (or paper towels)
1 backpacking trowel

1 folding saw
1 Container of Powder Bleach or bleach tablets
1 Container of Oil
1 Bear Bag
1 50' Bear Bag Rope
2 Carabiners
1 Crew Ground Cloth
*(1 Trail First Aid Kit)
Trail map
Food
Extra water jugs filled in truck, if water turned off at sites.